International Negotiation
A Journal of Theory and Practice

This issue
New Issues in Mediating the Israel-Palestine Deadlock

Guest Editor
Barry Steiner, California State University
Aims & Scope
International Negotiation examines negotiation from many perspectives, to explore its theoretical foundations and to promote its practical application. The journal addresses the processes of negotiation relating to political, security, environmental, ethnic, economic, business, legal, scientific and cultural issues and conflicts among nations, international and regional organizations, multinational corporations and other non-state parties.
